“Do all the good you can,

Capital Campaign kicks off September 13

Our combined 50th anniversary capital campaign and annual stewardship campaign begins the week of September 13. Information packets will be personally delivered beginning that week. Separate pledge cards for giving to the annual budget and the capital campaign will be mailed in October.

On Sunday, September 13 we will kick off the campaign with an informative presentation and a complementary brunch following our church service. Please come down to the Social Hall to have delicious egg bake, muffins, and fruit. While you are enjoying the food and camaraderie, you will have the opportunity to learn more about the capital campaign.

You will be able to view project pictures and converse with the trustees and steering committee. Any questions you have will be addressed. Tours of the church will be available after the brunch for those interested.

We hope to send you off with information, energy, and enthusiasm for our future with our church.

CoW Sunday II is just two weeks away

Celebration of Welcome

Marking a warm place in a cold world

Contribute to the needs of the saints; extend hospitality to strangers. Romans 12:13, NRSV

Hospitality, therefore, means primarily the creation of a free space where the stranger can enter and become a friend instead of an enemy. Hospitality is not to change people, but to offer them space where change can take place.... Creating space for the other is far from an easy task. It requires hard concentration and articulate work.

Last year at this time as the staff were making plans and preparations for September, we came up with the concept of CoW Sunday, a "Celebration of Welcome." Well, the idea seemed to grab some attention, so Sunday, September 13, we will be marking our second annual Celebration of Welcome Sunday – CoW Sunday.

You are invited to dress in your best black and white. That Sunday, all our music groups will be represented in helping lead worship. Faith Formation classes will begin for all ages, including the Adult Faith Forum at 9am.

There is something else going on as well. Celebration of Welcome Sunday will also be the kickoff Sunday for our Capital Campaign, People, Place, Purpose – A Promise for the Future. Please plan to stay for a meal following worship where this campaign will be presented in some light, entertaining and informative ways.

This campaign is part of our long-term effort to keep First United Methodist Church a place of welcome for years to come. I know you will join me in prayerfully considering how you might participate in this effort, and I want to thank the hard-working campaign steering team for all their efforts to date.

But there is even more going on beyond the capital campaign. For welcome to be truly and deeply celebrated, we need to let "welcome" become "hospitality." Welcome has to do with a pleasant greeting. It derives from older words which mean "desirable guest." All well and good. We want to greet others warmly and to make them feel as if they are desirable guests.

Hospitality also has to do with being friendly, but its roots are shared with the word "hospital," which has to do with healing. Extending hospitality goes beyond friendliness, though being friendly is an important part of hospitality. It is working to provide space

When we celebrate welcome we also aspire to grow in genuine and deep hospitality.

Church Lighting

August 30-September 5 from Jerry and Carol Norling in memory of Timothy Norling to benefit CHUM

The Methodist Enthusiasts,

our church softball team, finished with a 7-3 record on the season. The 'Thus went 2-3 versus the Lutherans, our most challenging opponents. A good time was had by all, reports Coach Pastor Sam Kautz.

Adopt-A-Backpack: Thanks to all who donated backpacks and school supplies for this CHUM project for Duluth Schools. Thanks to your generosity, 58 students will have full backpacks to start the school year. Duluth Public Schools expects to have 800-900 students who need these backpacks.

Welcome back, musicians!

Get ready to sing, ring, and jam

Mark your calendars for a Music Potluck on Wednesday, Sept. 2 at 6:30pm. All musicians are invited to this annual potluck and kick-off to our fall season. A few of our music groups will hold rehearsals that evening, with Tapestry and a handbell group rehearsing from 5:30-6:30 and the Sanctuary Choir from 7:15-8:15.

Most groups will resume their usual Wednesday evening rehearsal schedule on September 9,:

- 4:45 5Guise
- 5:15 Ringtones
- 6:15 Tapestry
- 6:30 Cast in Bronze
- 7:30 Sanctuary Choir
- 7:40 Class Ring

JAM will start their 5:15 pm rehearsals on Sept. 16.

We're always looking for new people to join our music groups. If you're interested, please talk to one of our directors or Velda Bell, our Director of Music Ministries. There is joy to be shared through music!

Wednesday Bible Study resumes Sept 9

We will begin our Wednesday evening Bible Study at 5:30pm on September 9. For the first session we will get to know one another, study one of the Scripture readings for the upcoming Sunday, and make a decision about the content of our study moving forward. The Bible Study will meet weekly on Wednesdays from 5:30-6:15.

where the stranger can become a friend, space where change can take place, both in the person offering hospitality and in the person receiving it, space for healing and well-being.

When we celebrate welcome we also aspire to grow in genuine and deep hospitality. The long-term wellbeing of this congregation depends not simply on a successful capital campaign. It also depends on growth. But growth will come as we become more welcoming and more hospitable.

It begins in knowing that each of us is welcomed by God in love, with all our faults and foibles. It moves to the creation of a community that genuinely cares for each other, joyfully cares for each other. It develops into the kind of community that always has space for new people who are searching for places of deep hospitality in a world that is often quite inhospitable.

It is our second CoW Sunday, but my hope is that the difference between this year and last is more than 365 days. My hope is that we are coming to this CoW Sunday with a renewed dedication to being a community of welcome and hospitality.

Grace and Peace,
David

Ready for Discovery Family Workshop

Three-year-olds will receive story bibles

This workshop for children who were born in 2012 and their families will introduce children to the children's ministries at FUMC.

Children will receive their very own story Bible, prayers, and other tools to help parents and kids connect faith to home.

Ready for Discovery will be on Wednesday, September 9 from 6- 6:45pm, meeting in the East Lounge (east hallway, lower level). Come at 5:45 for a complimentary meal!

Ruby's Pantry

Ruby's Pantry for this month will be Thursday, September 17.

We are now into our sixth year of this ministry. All who work coordinating Ruby's Pantry are deeply grateful for those who help make this food distribution program happen.

Volunteers are needed to greet our guests, prepare food for distribution, and share the food with them.

You may volunteer anytime between 3:30 and 8pm, and can come for as little as an hour to help out.

Remember Ruby's Pantry Coppertop is on Facebook at www.facebook.com/rubyspantrycoppertop.

It's worth a look to see comments and questions from guests, all of which are answered. Sometimes, items in the shipment and the number of shares distributed are posted as well.

First and Ten

The First and Ten Men's Group will gather for its first meeting of the Fall on Monday, September 14, beginning at 7pm in the Fireside Lounge. We will also plan to meet on Monday, September 28.

First and Ten is open to all men. It is a group that meets for discussion and service.

Church Council

First UMC Church Council will meet Tuesday, September 8, beginning at 6pm in the Fireside Lounge.

Forum will walk you through advance care directives

Can't We Talk About Something More Pleasant?

Here we go again! On September 20 at 11:15am I will hold another forum on planning for future health care choices—in other words, planning for your eventual demise. Attendees last fall overflowed the Fireside Lounge, so we will convene in the social hall this time. Food will of course be available.

This type of planning is not only for those who are older, but also those of you who don't consider yourselves about to die—so this includes most of you. Discussions with loved ones about what you would want toward the end of your life are important. Many questions need to be considered:

How do you envision your end of life journey? What would you want if something happened to you today? What makes life worth living to you? Do you have documents in place that would help the process should you not be able to make decisions for yourself? What are your goals and values? Do you have plans for your minor children?

Do you have an advance care directive? The most important part about advance care planning is having the conversations with your families and friends and caregivers, then completing a health care directive. Everyone attending will receive a conversation starter kit. Our main goal for this session is to begin conversations and what they should include.

Death is not a topic we are comfortable talking about, even here in churches, but death is a spiritual event with medical implications and everyone has a story.

Please plan on spending up to 90 minutes for this forum. A followup session will be held, but the month and date will be left up to those in attendance. If you attended last fall and have not completed a health directive or POLST form feel free to attend again and we will address your concerns/questions.

I look forward to our time together. Feel free to contact me prior to this session if you have questions.

Blessings to you, Linda

Gatherers (3rd grade minimum) Your young servant will enjoy teaming with you or another adult on this Worship Force team that helps take the morning offering.

A short training on Sunday, October 4 after worship until 11:30am will teach interested student/adult teams to learn how to take the offering and other ways to assist in worship, including "hosting" the Recycling Baskets at the end of the service.

Acolytes (4th grade minimum) Acolyte training will be offered to students in grade 4 and older on Sunday, October 4 after worship until 11:30am.

NEW! Sunday Family Faith Time

New family-oriented groups this fall will allow you a bit of time with your kids to share your values and your faith in a fun and interactive way. Ministries vary week to week, and each Sunday is self-contained so you can come when your schedule allows.

Confirmation will begin in January

Confirmation for 2015-2016 will begin in January 2016. We again plan to meet Sunday mornings before church.

The program is for eighth and ninth grade youth, with ninth graders being confirmed in May 2016.

UMW seeks help in the kitchen

The United Methodist Women of FUMC will be hosting the Big Waters fall district meeting here at FUMC on Saturday, September 19.

This is a big undertaking for us, and we could use your help.

We'll need servers, kitchen help, and dishwashers to offer a luncheon that day for approximately 100 attendees. We are impressed with the churches that have men serving at women's events.

If you would be willing to help, contact Marilew Barnidge at 724-0839 or randmbarnidge@aol.com.
