Lighting the Seven Lights of Our Lenten Journey

Pastors Jeanine Alexander and Cynthia Coffin-Langdon (noon)
Pastor Cynthia Coffin-Langdon and the Confirmation Class (7 pm)

We light seven candles to guide us in our Lenten journey, reminding us that we do not journey in darkness, but have light to guide our way.

- The light of the CROSS represents the power and paradox of the Gospel: a way of death becomes the way to life.
- The light of SCRIPTURE, which lights our way, proclaiming the message of our faith.
- The light of SILENCE reminds us of God's presence in the absence of noise.
- The light of PRAYER guides us as we rise each morning and retire each night.
- The light of the SACRAMENTS of communion and baptism reminds us of God's unconditional love and divine hospitality.
- The light of SACRIFICE is willingly placing ourselves in God's hand as we focus on the ways of Jesus and provide for the needs of others.
- The light of LOVE lights our path showing us the way to go. Love brings light in the midst of darkness. Love ushers in the gift of abundant, eternal life.

Hymn What Wondrous Love is This

UM Hymnal #292

Prayer

Pastor Cynthia Coffin-Langdon

Lord's Prayer

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name; Thy Kingdom come, Thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread and forgive us our trespasses as we forgive those who trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom, the power, and the glory forever. Amen.

Scripture Reading

Philippians 2:1-11

One: If then there is any encouragement in Christ, any consolation from love, any sharing in the Spirit, any compassion and sympathy, make my joy complete: be of the same mind, having the same love, being in full accord and of one mind.

All: Do nothing from selfish ambition or conceit, but in humility regard others as better than yourselves. Let each of you look not to your own interests, but to the interests of others.

One: Let the same mind be in you that was in Christ Jesus, who, though he was in the form of God, did not regard equality with God as something to be exploited, but emptied himself, taking the form of a slave, being born in human likeness.

- All: And being found in human form, he humbled himself and became obedient to the point of death – even death on a cross.
- One: Therefore God also highly exalted him and gave him the name that is above every name, so that at the name of Jesus every knee should bend, in heaven and on earth and under the earth,
- All: and every tongue should confess that Jesus Christ is Lord, to the glory of God.

Offering Our Gifts and Tithes Pastor Jeanine Alexander

Imposition of the Ashes Pastors Jeanine Alexander and Cynthia Coffin-Langdon

- One: We are children of the Earth.
- All: From the dust of the stars, we were formed and to the dust of the earth we will return.
- One: This is a day of true repentance, a time to return to God with all our hearts.
- All: We ask forgiveness for all those things which we have done that we should not have done. We ask forgiveness for all those things left undone which we should have done.
- One: As we turn toward God, God welcomes us with amazing grace. Let us pray.
- All: Almighty God, you have created us out of the dust of the earth. Grant that these ashes may be to us a sign of our mortality and penitence, so that we may remember that only by your gracious gift are we given everlasting life; through Jesus Christ, our Savior. Amen.

For those worshipping online, please create your own way to be marked with the cross.

Commission and Blessing Pastor Cynthia Coffin-Langdon

- One: The voice of God, which conflicts and consoles, sends us back into our everyday world.
- All: We scatter with God's word in our hearts and the assurance of God's power sustaining us.
- One: Take with you the light of God's revelation and the knowledge of God's glory in the cross of Christ.
- All: We seek to attune our spirits to our Creator, that the light may shine for others through us.
- One: Live boldly in this Lenten season and live in the Light of the Cross. Amen
